Caldwell Defeat Athletics -Score Is 2 to 1.

By FREDERICK G. LIEB. Like the ghost in Hamlet, Frank Baker's home runs come back to taunt Connie Mack of the deal by which he accepted Col. Ruppert's lucre for Con-nie's leading mauler. But Connie has been hardened to that by now and doesn't mind such trifles as losing ball

The Yankees ended their long home stay by making a clean sweep of the three game set with the Philadelphians, the locals nosing out their rivals in the final contest, 2 to 1.

The wet, cold weather put quite a crimp in the holiday programme of the Yankees. Only the second game of the advertised twin bill was put on. The first was called off on account of wet grounds and a crowd of about 10,000 shivered through the cold damp that enveloped the Polo yard to watch the second contest.

Veterans in Pitching Duel.

The game evolved into a pitching duel stween the veteran twirlers, Ray Caldbetween the veteran twirlers, Ray Cald-well and Sylvanus Gregg, the comeback southpaw. Though Vean's "souper" has some back he cannot win any games. Gregg is the Leon Kalamity Ames of the Gregg is the Leon Kalamity Ames of the Athletics. Caldwell hasn't been enjoying any prosperity to speak of himself. He won his first game last Sunday. Both men pitched splendid ball, but the Balamanca telegrapher really earned the decision, as Baker's homer was the only assend run of the game.

A muff by Luderus got Oeschger off to a bad start in the first inning. Fred missed Stock's assist on Young. Kauff knocked a single to right, sending Young to third. McGaffigan backed into short right for Burns's fly and Young, taking a daring chance, scored after the catch.

Caldwell pitched by far the best game he has displayed this season. For the first time this spring he appeared to have any of his former "stuff" on the

The Athletics scored their lone run in The Atmictics scored their lone run in the fourth inning, but it was a very scratchy run. It took the wet grass, an error and a high bounce to the plate to make the run possible. Tilly Walker started the inning with a slow roller to third, but Baker slipped in the wet grass and was unable to make a play at first. Burns struck out, after which Tilly Burns struck out, after which Tilly fliched second base. Gardner hit to Peck, whose throw was a bit wide and pulled Pipp off his anchorage. The Yankees yesterday obtained Chief the rankers peterary Indian pitcher, from the Philadelphia Nationals for the waiver price. NAVY CREWS IN THRILLING RACE

Pelham Bay Beats Granite State in Feature of Harlem Regatta.

Three lengths in the wake of the victors came the stout hearted boys from the Granite State. By a splendid dis-play of grit and gameness they fought their way up from last place into second position. The second crew of the Pelham N. T. S. was third and the second crew of the Granite State fourth. The winners drove their bulky, unwieldly craft over the eight furlongs of choppy water in the corking time of 7:06 1-5.

Those who thronged the float of the Nonparell Rowing Club and other boat houses near the finish saw some corking contests. The closest finish of the day came in the quadruple sculls, when the quartet from the Metropolitan Rowins Club nosed out the Nonparells by a scant half length.
